

Wells next
the Sea.
(Norfolk).

The Misses Haycock's Charity (founded by Miss Emma Haycock).

File 42197-

By an Indenture dated 19th February 1886 made between Emma Haycock of the one part and Joshua Gales Hugh Robert Kump George Everitt and John Macke (being 4 of the Trustees for the administration and management of the several charities in the Parish of Wells next the Sea in the County of Norfolk (including the West Hillings Morays Charity) under a Scheme for the future regulation of the said Charities affirmed and established by an Order of the Board of Charity Commissioners for England and Wales made on the 18th July 1876) of the other part It was witnessed that it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the persons parties thereto that the said Joshua Gales Hugh Robert Kump George Everitt and John Macke should forthwith invest a sum of £500 paid to them by the said Emma Haycock immediately before the execution of those presents in the purchase in the names of them the said Joshua Gales Hugh Robert Kump George Everitt and John Macke of Bank £3 per centum Consolidated Annuities after first paying thereout the sum of £6 for the costs attending the preparation of those presents and of investing the Trust Fund And should hold the sum of Bank

Annuities to be purchased as aforesaid Upon trust to receive from time to time the dividend thereon and with all convenient speed after the 6th January in each and every year to distribute the same money after deducting therefrom any reasonable expenses attending such distribution among poor people living at Wells next the Sea aforesaid such poor people at every such distribution to be not less than 64 years of age and to be persons who should have been living at Wells next the Sea aforesaid during the whole or the greater part of the 12 calendar months immediately preceding such distribution And every such distribution to be in such proportions amongst such aged poor persons as the Trustees should from time to time think fit And it was thereby further agreed and declared that it should be lawful for all or any one or more of the Trustees for the time being for the management and administration of the charities aforesaid to concur in any such distribution as aforesaid Provided always that the number of the Trustees of those presents should be 4 and accordingly upon the death retirement refusal to act or unfitness to act of any Trustee a new Trustee should be forthwith appointed in the place of such Trustee And that each such appointment should be made by the Trustees for the time being for the management and administration of the charities aforesaid or by a majority of such Justices if they or such majority should think fit to make such appointment by appointing one of the Justices for the time being for the management and administration of the charities aforesaid And further that if in any case a Justice should not be appointed under the power aforesaid within 2 calendar months after notice should have been given that such power had become exercisable then the new Justice should be appointed under the statutory power in that behalf But a neglect to exercise the power aforesaid on any occasions should not be held to destroy the power or to affect any future exercise thereof.